CHRISTMAS GUIDE

HOUSE OF VALENTINA

Merry Christmas

It's our absolute favorite time of year here at House of Valentina — Christmas! This is when the whole house gets dressed up in its holiday best and everything just feels a little more enchanted. The scents of balsam and cookies fill the air, the classic holiday music is playing (usually thanks to Jack), and there's this irresistible mix of chaos and charm as we prep, not just for the big day, but for a season of entertaining and coziness.

For me, decorating for Christmas is pure joy — it's that rare moment when you get to blur the line between home and wonderland. Every corner glows a little brighter, every room feels a little cozier, and the whole house seems to hum with excitement.

This year, we're layering all the things we love most: coziness, luxury, elegance, fun, and a touch of enchantment. Think soft textures, glowing candlelight, and those unexpected details that make your guests stop and say, "Wait... how did you make it look like this?"

From our favorite ornaments to the rich, moody tones we're styling throughout the house, we're creating a season that feels warm, inviting, and just a little bit cinematic.

So grab your coffee (or champagne!), and come take a peek at a few of our favorite things this holiday season. I promise, by the end, you'll be ready to sprinkle a little of that House of Valentina magic all over your own home.

O Christmas Tree

It's the star of the show — the centerpiece of our holiday decor and the heart of Christmas morning itself. Every year, I'm on the hunt for that perfect tree — one that feels organic, sculptural, and effortlessly beautiful before a single light or ornament goes up.

Whether you love something tall and statuesque or a slimmer silhouette for smaller spaces, these are a few of my absolute favorites this season.

Click on each photo to take a closer look — because once you find the one, everything else just falls into place.

Christmas Candles

I have bought SO many candles over the years and these are the ALL STARS. These are THE BEST OF THE BEST, the creme de la creme! They smell soooo good! OMG I wish I could send these scents through to you, but I will tell you this. These are just as lovely as they sound! I genuinely believe that you will love any of these and they will fill your home with the fragrance of the holidays, of warmth, of love, and good cheer. I'm getting giddy just thinking about these arriving at your door and the smile they will bring to you!

THE MOST WONDERFUL TIME OF THE YEAR

We've celebrated Christmas across three continents — in homes where snow fell softly outside the windows and others where the air was warm, humid, and heavy with the scent of palm trees. But no matter where we've been, every Christmas has shared one thing in common: pure magic.

Because that's really what it's all about, isn't it? Magic is what makes a home come alive — it's the sparkle in the air, the glow from the candles, the music that drifts through the house while you wrap gifts (and maybe sneak a cookie or two). Over the years, we've learned that this feeling doesn't just happen — it's created through the little things: the layers of soft fabrics, the mix of textures, the comforting scents, and the sounds that instantly whisper home.

Christmas has this incredible way of slowing us down and pulling us closer to what matters most. It invites us to live in our homes — to linger a little longer by the fire, to laugh louder around the table, and to fill every corner with warmth and joy.

So let's make our homes as magical as they deserve to be — alive with beauty, brimming with love, and ready for every unforgettable moment this season will bring.

The Christmas Tree Planter

I want it to feel MAGICAL!! The Christmas Tree is the centerpiece of most of our rooms and I love when it feels organic, effortless and truly special! A few years ago, we started placing our trees in oversized planters instead of traditional stands, and honestly... total game changer!

It gives the tree this beautiful, natural look—like it sprouted right there in the corner—and instantly adds that elevated, designer feel I'm always chasing. The extra 6 to 12 inches of height doesn't hurt either; it makes the whole thing feel grander and more sculptural. Every time we set one up, I can't help but step back and think, "Yes, that's it! It's stunning!!!"

- FILL IN 1/2 OF THE PLANTER WITH ROCKS
- PLACE THE ROUND TREE STAND LEVEL ON THE ROCKS
- FILL IN AROUND THE PLANTER WITH ROCKS UNTIL WELL COVERED
- PLACE THE TREE INTO THE STAND
- COVER THE TOP WITH MOSS

Our Garland Recipe

Garland is one of the most powerful ways to add instant character and beauty to a space. It has this incredible ability to soften architecture, frame moments, and make a room feel layered and alive. I love draping it everywhere — over the fireplace, around doorframes, up the stair railing, across cabinets, even above oversized art or along the top of a console.

But here's the secret: I never leave garland as-is. I always take the basic strand and building on it. Every strand becomes its own little masterpiece, full of texture and personality. It's those unexpected details that make your holiday decor feel collected, cozy, and uniquely you.

Celebrate the Day

Decorating for Christmas shouldn't feel like a chore—it should be a celebration. Light a candle, turn up the music, and pour yourself a cup of something delicious while you hang the garland. Sneak a treat (or several) in the afternoon, and when the lights finally twinkle just right, raise a glass of champagne to the beauty you've created. Because the joy isn't just in the finished room—it's in every moment along the way.
